bigwig992Renegade is dead. For me. But until I get my little package from SomeRhino I can't play. Damn 2-3 day deliverys.

Yeah I can't wait for SomeRhino's Sole Survivor and the other mods are still going strong. I still play Renegade occasionally but no where as much as before. However you'll still see that I am helping people in the mod forum a lot and I come here every day (unless I'm away).

Also I have Renegade to thank for meeting eveyone here and which led to me getting involved in Planetside. Although it's not Renegade, the people i see on Planetside and also in my outfit I wouldn't have met if it wasn't for Ren.
