It is technically impossible to block all cheats server side. The best they could do is pur lagreduction completely off but that would only lead to incredible lag, damage not registering, ...

Even with lagreduction off, some cheats would still be possible.

If (s)he comes to tell me ere that they blocked all cheats server side, then I'd prefer them to put their money where their mouth is and show me, or rather the people of BlackIntel who'd be very intrested.
