I was just bidding on a copy of sole survivor. I was hoping to spend maybe $10 on it. Thats what I saw a copy go for about a year ago. Same deal, really good shape, all included, etc.

The thing went for over $50!

I rarely see them on ebay. A bunch of people must be trying to complete their collections.

BTW, has anyone heard of the "Command Companion - The Eve of Domination" expansion for the original C&C? I'd never heard of it before. Apparently it was released by a separate company not westwood. It added in some scenarios like Covert Ops did.

The original is by far my favourite C&C. I was hoping to get all the original stuff. But it definately isnt' worth that kind of money!
