You don't end up bankrupt because your insurance company refuses to let the doctors treat you because of an outstanding illness thats not even related.

Or die if you get cancer.

My mother had a tumor and cancer nearly a year ago.

Not only did she get surgery to remove the tumor, But Chemotherapy to kill the cancer off.

Then a month later she got pneumonia, She got treated for that, too.

Guess how much is was to get treated for all that? FREE!

I think I sunk your battleship.
