I hope both of you are right and there are no cheats for this game.

Java, as far as adding me to your collection..... how old are you? Kirbys response made me laugh (like most of his post) your response made me ill. Please add me to your collection of people... just add it now... do you think I care. And I did not scream aimbot. Where in my post did I say I screamed aimbot. All I simply referred to was the possibility of there being a cheat. Please take the time to actually read post before responding. Further, you do better with humor, stick to that. Dont threaten people you feel are beneath you with adding them to a list or collection. That only makes you look stupid.
