Well i downloaded the mIRC and i managed to get into the Marathon channel and speak with some people....

But i quickly left when i learnt i can be banned from even there!

PCP would not even tell me his personnel opinion on my question

"Honestly please tell me do you think that it was "I" who haxed and not my brother with the same I.P"

All i got out of him was "i do not trust anyone"

LOL, i am not surprised by him saying that, as it seems all and any server host/admin/mod have no opinion and are just like little robots going straight the way to the dot of a big rule book or a "procedure"

Except SR, he's alright
