They are also the country with the most warheads at the moment.

If anyone is likely to nuke anything its gonna be the US

It's true the US is the only country to use nukes while AT WAR (and used them to END THE WAR), but several countries in the middle east have flat out said, that they want to "Reduce Israel to dust", and "Wipe Israel from the earth". While we have nukes they are for defensive purposes (or MAD)...we don't go around saying that we are going to use them...because we don't want to. By contrast, a country like Iran flat out says they want WMD to destroy Israel...see a slight difference between us and them now?
