He sleeps and fusses lol.

He hates not being cocooned in blankets.

Yeah when they are that young swaddling is the best way to keep them quiet. They just came out of a warm, quiet, dark and cramped environment into a cold, harsh, loud, bright and very big world.....so they like comforts that remind them of the womb when they are very small.

Congratulations to you and your g/f he's a beauty (not more so than my kids-but I am biased)

Best of luck to you and do not worry about anything, as long as your baby is loved, protected and kept safe he will love you. He hasn't got the ideals of material possessions in his head yet and as long as you raise him to understand love and family trump money and possession you'll always be loved in return.

In other words ignore troopr02.
