sloppyjoCrimsonAnd just in case you think we're a small newbie clan, we currently have 52 members, about 8 of which are in the Renegade division, but more that can play if you want to get a big match together.

12v12 come to GDI barracks anytime and LT Would be happy to play you,You would probally loose though.

We don't play LT anymore, due to a clan match we had back in the DOM days when we were cheated.
