One thing is for sure, you can get 100+ kills in a 30 min game...

I can easily get 44 kills in 10 min with an APC, you have to look at all the angles... sometimes it's not just sniping.

And sloppy is right, that guy was cheating, im not so sure it was aimbot though.

For instance, my friend used to play renegade on dial-up connection, and i dont know if any of you have ever played with dial-up or not, but its pretty easy to get 100+ kills.

I played a game on his comp and got 159 kills, easy. The people on the game will run into walls, stand still, and when you shoot them, no matter where they are, they die. Some of you know this as "LAG KILL N00B."

So what im saying is, maybe this guy was laggin off the hook or something, trust me, its pretty easy to get kills that way.

And Bozim...

- 1) Laggy as hell
- 2) Aimbot
- 3) Lucky as shit

Pick one
