Sean here's not a place to be argueing with helocal members of the ren forums... Uhm, as to waht pirate said, haha, i'm of course stupid cause i spelled syco like that... I wonder if Psychomoto looks good as a name? O.o Anyways, i don't want a flame war here, or argueing, so both sean and sadu, please stop... I just want people to contribute their idea's and information on the subject... I know that's hipocritical, i did flame ekt in general a bit, i'm sorry, just please resume the topic and stay on topic... Also that editing job is terrible, and the editing denyance was the fact about the points, not ammo... Anyways, this topic is "restarted" Contribute, don't argue.
