Anything but insults? Not really.

It's interesting that you have yet to realize that we don't give a shit about you or whorequeer. I don't know how much we need to stress this until you finally fucking realize it, but it should have been clear several days ago that we DO NOT GIVE A FUCK.

Please, I beg of you to listen to us just this once. I'm going to give you my most sincere, heartfelt suggestion that I seriously advise you to take to heart. Instead of concentrating on your "game studio", I suggest you concentrate on your school work, so you don't fail as an adult as you're destined to if you keep this up.

(There, Ryu, I remembered to say it this time!)
