Yes, I understand the logic behind it. And no, I'm not assuming that all drug users don't pay taxes; I'm just stating that taxpayers shouldn't have to pay for it.

I stand by what I said.

And what SHOULD taxpayers be spending money on, if not helping out their fellow man? Tss, don't you get it, the government shouldn't be allowed to ask taxes, it's EVIL! Like, you know, they can build roads with that, and fight crimes and stuff, all things that do not directly benefit you. Would've been way better if you could've kept the money so you could just pay for your own protection, and not the protection of the neighbours etc. By the way, the USA government isn't spending that much of taxpayers money anymore... They are more like spending money from Chinese investment companies and the like. And they are doing so in a rate of about 1.52 Billion dollars a day

Another thing, did you know that your government is indeed stealing your money, and I don't mean by taxes. By creating inflation, they are making more and more money, as in the psycal piece of paper. But by making more of them, they get less rare, and thus less valuable. Thank Bush for that btw, with Clinton your government was indeed just paying taxpayers money.
