I second that! We get alot of noobs becuase people can just build up ALOT of them noob defens and just camp. Heck that's not fun...

But yes, I must say if you play on kamuix and don't like it, why complain about a server you don't like? You can complain if you like somthing but 1 specific thing not.

And for Orca? He has been annoying our forums for a while I must say can't he just be quite? He shouldn't be comming back if he doesn't care.

And Rocko,

Why do you complain if you almost never play there? There are alot of other servers that wouldn't mind having a player of your status. And yes we don't have alot of players becuase:

- a)noobs hate the small defenses
- b)we aren't that big (wich issn't needed)
- c)depends on the time

We have enough regulars wich provide a nice atmosphere so hey...

P.S. Crimson, do you know perhaps when the Wikipedia will be back up? :s
