what is warez? Are you talking about www.arez.com?

No no it is not illegal I OWN XP for real and I have a product key it's just my XP cd is too scratched to do anything about it. I have all off the files from the CD except "SETUP.EXE" it is to corrupted to run the installer. So I guess I just have wo run winnt.exe in dos, or winnt32.exe in windows. (Which is the CD image by the way)
