I bought this for 470 dollars from a woman on ebay, she sells these suits, and ever since I was young, I wanted to be a stormtrooper. Never could buy one until now because of my height, now I am 5'8" and tall enough, I got one.

It fits good, except I need to redo the strapping on the arms, they seem too low or too long, not sure. They just dont fit conformable when wearing it.

Over all, the suit is comfy to wear, nothing hurts or makes me feel like "I CANT MOVE PLZ HELP"

So far been building this kit since last friday night. Almost all done.

Helmet wasnt padded, so it is slanted in the photo.

Yes I am a star wars nerd fiy.
