I just thought it may be interesting for us all to share our FAVORITE tactics. Pretty broad, I know, but hey, it seems fun.

For me, one of my favorite things to do is wall hugging with a shotgunner. Simply put, you hug the wall on a corner, switch to 3rd person mode so you can see around it, and when someone gets close, pop out and shotgun them in the head. That's pretty damn fun if you ask me.
