TBH, WEP is ok, as I'm living in a *remote* area, and no, I'm not filtering MAC addresses, I wan to point out, that, this pc was originally in the attic of the house, and was connected there via erthnet(as the router is in the attic), it worked perfectly, so it's definetly the wireless, the card is perfect, as it worked on XP (same PC). It just, for some reason, won't assign a IP...
