If people could be brought back to life and live normally again.....why would we worry? You get killed, pop back to life.

And if you blew up the world.....why would you, if your a king or a ruler, you'd die too from the explosion...then whats the point if you cant rule anything.

Cloned sheep die early, they arent perfect.

Mind control.....omg....seriously?

Here i will tell the truth, I am working for the government, they planted a mind control chip into my brain, now they are making me type this, be warnnnnedd you have a chip in your brain too!

Seriously...no one does.....stop freaking out of theories and ideas, just live a happy life.
