Not anymore. Because you elected Bush you can kiss your democracy goodbye.

Quote:- Its on good terms with most countries

Only because if a government pops up that it doesn't agree with it either stages a coup to overthrow it or bombs the country to the stone age, and many of it's allies put up with the US only because it is a superpower.

Quote:- It has the least problems in terms of benefitting the poor

Then how come most blacks are still unable to climb the class ladder?

Quote:- Its the most technologically advanced country on earth (NO. It is not Japan. This is a retarded misconception. Japan has the best technology in things like, cameras, computers, etc. However, for weaponry, it comes no where close to America).

Maybe, but 75% of the population never see this "advanced technology that you speak of."

Quote:- Has lasted over 230 years, which is more than I can say for many countries.

And yet is that is 1/10 of China's existence as a state.

Quote:- Has an unsurpassed army training programm, and the most well equipped troops on earth.

And yet it still lost in Vietnam.

Quote:- Trades with nearly every country in some form or another

So does most of Europe.

Quote:- Has one of the highest money values of any country

And it won't be that way in 50 years, keep on electing leaders like Bush and soon there will be hyperinflation.

Quote:- Has one of the best immigration policies in the Americas

What about Canada?

Let me guess, your a little America-Hating left-wing activist, right?

Let me give you some directions to the front of the store my friend, since you seem to be stuck in the Ignorant Department:

1. Why did we lose in Vietnam? We didn't. We pulled out. We lost one thing. Our brothers, sons, husbands, boyfriends, and friends. Thats what we lost. But we didn't lose the war. And the only reason we didn't WIN it, is because we weren't able to devote ourselves fully to it, and sent about 1/10 as many soldiers over as we needed. My father was in Vietnam, and I know the stories, he told me a lot about it. Not only that, I've done a lot of research myself.

2. Bush is the least of our problems. I hate fools like you who look for the apocalypse in everything, saying "OH NO! SINCE WE SOMETIMES ELECT THESE PEOPLE WE'RE GOING TO TURN INTO A POLICE STATE ONE DAY! HORROR, HORROR!". I have some news for you. That happened to England. Guess what happened? America was formed. The government may not be made of the nicest people, but they aren't stupid, and they are the reason we have the freedom we do. If they were to take away our "freedom", there would be some serious shit going down, trust me. The only reason you can even SAY you dislike them is because we still have freedom. Some places wouldn't even give you freedom of speech. NO country is perfect. Not a single one. Because perfect doesn't, and will never, exist. But overall, America is the best country out there. And Canada? Lol. Thats funny.

3. Blacks can't get up in the world? Lol? Let me ask you something. Do you realize that I'm half chinese and half black? I'm also bisexual, and my mother left me and my father when I was 16. And you know what? I make 150k+ a year, I have a wife, a family, a good job as a Marine Biologist, and the fact is, I'm not hurting. I had practically ever disadvantage you could think of, and I still made myself into a success. ONE thing keeps "blacks" from getting ahead. Thats themselves. I'll take a quote from Bill Cosby: "Your dirty laundry gets home at 3pm every day". Hes totally right. These kids go out and cause trouble, and don't study, and mouth off. These kids are they're own problems, and sometimes, honestly, make me ashamed to even be half black. If these kids really wanted to have a life, they'ed do EXACTLY what I did. They would go off, get a job, study, go to college.

4. Canada? BAHHAHAHA! Yeah right. America is so superior to Canada in almost every way its not even funny.

I will go half way with you. America has its problems. Electing dumb asses like Bush being one. But guess what? This is the best god damn country on earth, and the fact that ANYONE who dislikes it lives here, really baffles me. If you have a problem with it, just leave, and see how long it is before you come back.
