Bump. Blu Ray Winz kthnx.

Now HD-DVDs defeat is complete... well almost.

Warner, new line cinema and HBO switched to blue ray.

I said this was going to happen. So it did. This and the fact that mgs4 is coming out soon + the 20 AAA (Tekken 6 ftw) titles this year is certain to give the ps3 a huge boost in sales.

It's just a shame that a title like "uncharted" didn't sell more. It's one of the best games i have ever played.

BTW i know that the warner news is "old" meaning it happened a week ago. But who cares. It's still pwnage after sometime in may, they are all blue ray exclusives.
