You're right. You didn't imply it. You outright said it. It's still in the time "...capable of MASS rapes" The term "mass" means many, multiple, more than one.

prasp wrote on Tue, 15 January 2008 18:11 Did I say that officers and generals personally ordered them to rape Iraq woman? No. However, hundreds of individual soldiers after the invasion was over decided to take the aforementioned action stated above, and their higher ups not only did nothing about it but secretly encouraged it, similar to what happened in Poland and the Soviet Union during WW2.

Yes. They secretly encouraged it. Which is why pimply-faced teenagers are writing about it in forums founded on completely unrelated topics. THATS how secret the orders were, right?

Prasp, please stop giving the rest of us with grieviences a bad name. Some of us like to think critically and support our arguements, and you're fucking it up for us.
