This is something that I posted in another thread:

He is now a work foreman running mid-night convoys from one town to the next.

He isn't a marine, he isn't fighting, he is helping to rebuild, but that doesn't mean the Iraqis won't try and kill him. Just a few months ago one of the vehicles in his convoy was hit by a roadside bomb.

And not only that, but he went there back in I believe 05. He has visited back home one time so far, and has refused to come back home ever since.

The company that I was helping him write a resume for was Haliburton, and he is currently working for them.

I know that really doesn't have much to do with the thread, I just thought I'd mention it.
