Yeah I was refering to this:

AoBfrost wrote on Wed, 25 July 2007 00:06Omg.....I swear, why cant someone just model the gun? I know it takes hours to do and lots of work, but i mean why cant someone model it and photoshop the texture? I could make the texture because i know how to use photoshop, if someone would just make the model...especially the other sniper seen in other screenshots, it had a green scope like the one in renegade right now, but it was more high tech looking.

Thanks!
