I watched the trailer. My observations:

One thing I noticed (and really happy with so far) is how they have managed to recreate the spirit of Nick "Havoc" Parker in Ricardo Vega.

- Almost has the same voice
- familiar hawkish nose
- deadly green eyes
- movement/motion just like Havoc

The rest of the trailer was crap.

But it is great to see Havoc being honored this way as he is my most respected fictional character who must have immortality in the video game universe.
