Yeah!

It wasn't based on C&C Renegade

It also didn't have buildings that looked very similar to the buildings you have

It didn't have the same name

It didn't have Renardin in the team either

It didn't have infantry that was called and looked pretty much the same

It didn't have vehicles that looked pretty much the same either

Admit it, it took you guys 4,5 year to improve the models and skins for a little bit, instead of FFS releasing something that would have been good if the balance was fixed.
