My best friend came from Russia 4 years ago when he was 12, and now, he speaks better english than he did russian. He even has OUR accent!

4 years is alot but when it will be 4 year to be being in america will be the same as it is right now because i'm not learning english anymore and u kno wat the are alot of kids in my school that came to usa before me and i kno english pritt well and once i asked my teacher if i have an accsent and she said a little bit but not alot

the two things that are realy hard for me in english are spelling and reading on writing i'm good but in renforums i got use to this kind of writing in keyboards and the bad thing about my writing is "RUN ON SENTENCE" i just made an run on sentence
