I don't think Ron Paul has a 'Rightful Place' at all. He was unpopular with voters; he may have had some good points, but he was way over-hyped by college students, and anti-establishment types.

Plus, if this "vote tampering" happened, McCain would not be the front runner either, simply because many powerful people in the Republican party are very scared of the guy.

Obama is not going to be assassinated. Christ, some of his positions on foreign policy would make George Bush blush.
