xSeth2k2xThere are many,many, FLAMED out topics

I noticed the main people doing this are : ACK,boatbomber,havocman,Sir Phoenixx Lol... You're kidding right? Find more than one (or at least one) thread in which I STARTED flaming or attacking anyone. Simple involmment where I'm replying to someone else who is attacking or flaming me doesn't count [edit: defending someone in a thread doesn't count either].

Flame War Incedent #1: <http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=6235>

It all started with ack and his negitivity.He can never be positive about any mod or model thats not his making.

That topic was turned personal by you, and the flaming was started by CaptKurt. Find the topic "Back to Topic", read that. The only thing ACK did was express his opinion that there are already alot of tutorial sites and it would be almost pointless to make more, everyone automatically jumped him for posting in that thread, it wouldn't matter what he posted.

Flame War Incedent #2:

he does it agin.

Are you serious? Have you even read ACK's replies to that thread? Have you even read anything in that thread? CaptKurt posted that thread to mainly discredit and blame a "flame war" that he himself started on ACK.

who cares wheather its MOD mOD mod or whatever?

lol... You obviously have no idea what a flame war is. Correcting someone's grammar and spelling do not equate to a "flame war".
