I think that you have done a bit to much coding RoShamBo. You seem to speak almost in 0010100's to me sometimes...

Key=1
Key=0

  What the hell is that sort of stuff gonna do for me?
All I need to know from this query is how the hell when I open up Notepad(or .txt file) I can save it in Configuration Settings format???? So it's properties are like that of the above SS in previous post???
