whom needs further detail; the change from person into tank object is bugging renegade. you recognize it when you enter a vehicule and see your gun still acting. Able to aim your own tank, bullets are deviated netherless they deal damage.

Yes you can fix it by reentering 1-6 times, no real problem there. I am just wondering why this occurs now more often then in the past?! And why are rifle / repair guns giving points when you use them WHILE driving a tank, looks like the server doesnt receive the info about just the fact you are using "Tank weapon" now..

All i know is that i can kill people while sitting in a tank, and BR just says "xyou killed some123 with Ramjet". The person-mounted turret of the tank just is uncontrollable, maybe does not deal any damage. Has anyone tried out more?

Holding a beacon when you are experiencing that bug and of coz simultaneous drivining a tank, wont shot it. Can´t really fix what noone knows, so need any info ^^ i don´t think it is a latency problem or lose of transinfo, would be a shame if reni is unplayable
