Maybe someone else was hitting you...

You say "No one else was hitting me". Right? How the freak would you even know that? It looks like you were playing on a mighty big server, with a lot of people, so I'm guessing you have eyes in the back of your head and you can see everyone around you? Perhaps he got a few headshots in a row? Yes, it does happen.

And this is the freaking guy telling me why I'm a retard because I prefer 500 over 1000...Not only is he using a 500 in the video, hes freaking sucking. Thanks for proving yourself a worthless ReT@rD who cries because he lost to a soldier. But wait!- U R NOT HAV1NG PLAYD IN 1 YEER SO U GOT XCUSE!!!
