Holy fuck you guys are ignorant and ultimately, retarded.

1st off, I, myself (Matix) have nothing to do with Ulti-Serv or Stealth-Servers anymore. Trooprm02 came up to me one day asking for access to the domains because I wasn't using them, so I lent him the domain names. I lent him Stealth-Servers.com, .info, and .org, as well as Ulti-Serv.NET. After a week or so, Hawk (I have IP logs from godaddy support) went on my account and deleted these 4 domain names.

Afterwards, troop went up to me and told me they have been deleted, I called up godaddy, and they said they can't give it back to me, but refunded me for the ammount of time that was left on the domains, gave me ip logs of who deleted them at what time, etc. Trooprm then bought off Ulti-Serv.com (not .net) and asked me if I can install him a WoW server, I did so, it didn't work out, he got someone else to do it. He also asked me for my old hosting template which I rightly so gave to him. You can also see that trooprm runs everything as the forums are linked to his free forums and you can see that the paypal used on the hosting site is HIS account. -- That is why HE is using free web hosting to host his websites. If I had owned the websites, they would be hosted on a linux box properly with cpanel.

You guys can believe whatever the fuck you want to, the reason for my absence of today's animosity is because I was fucking tired of cleaning up after Hawk's fucking wrong doing, like for example, the $200 that mvrtech donated went into Hawk's fucking monitor he bought under my paypal, and loads of other people's money being used on Hawk's own base.

You guys are fucking ridiculous if you think I have done anything with Renegade or hosting as a matter of fact on the internet for a couple of months now. Grow the fuck up and learn to fucking move on.

P.S. - Hawk, Kyle sent me the fake screen shots you produced and sent to fl00d3d saying I e-mail bombed people, sweet fakes.
