SO MANY BUGS ON THAT MAP...REMINDS ME OF THE GAME ITSELF.

I agree with AeonElite.

I don't know where to begin with calling you an idiot with this... So I'll just call you an idiot and spare the analysis of the post.

May I ask where in the h3ll do you get the spare time to sit on here all day and "analysis" posts?

Spare time? It's 1:36 AM. It takes me an average of 30-120 seconds to respond to a post on this forum, roughly a few minutes; at most. You posted a topic and continue to reply to it. Ask yourself a better question: Why do you spend your time making pointless garbage like this, when you're obviously wrong?
