AircraftkillerWhat does having a 1v1 mean to you? Since you're such a clan player, as you've openly flaunted so far, you're playing for teamwork (Another statement you're flaunting unneedlessly) in this game. Where's the precious teamwork you love so much in a 1v1? Oh, wait, there is none... Keep consistent, please.

I don't have to prove anything. You're the one making the accusations about me stealing vehicles - go ahead and prove it with images and a detailed explanation that you didn't just pull out of your rectum...

Don't dodge me. 1v1 shows TRUE skill. Teamwork is just another thing needed to compete in TEAM games. Skill matters in those, but it solely depends on YOU to beat ME 1v1. Let's go then...set up a time and date...or are you going to be a puss and not accept my challenge in front of all your minions?
