Why do even the most skilled clan players think that someone was cheating if they get owned bad?

This guy goes by the nick "ExPedro"

I was playing in my homeserver St0rm:

Map: Hourglass

My Vehicle: Med

Character: Hotwire

And I owned this guy (Technician) running into the tunnel with a headshot from a Med tank...just moments later I killed a SBH with 2 shots that was running with him into the tunnel.

It sucks I don't have logs or any SS but he screamed "hax" and left. And he went and added me to the ban list in his server (SK-Gaming Marathon Server). Not that I want to play there lmfaol!

Now anyone who has been playing Renegade should know that a person improves with constant playing. I am sure I am not upto the gaming calibre of clan players. But there is no doubt about it that I have mastered this game. I have been playing this game most of my spare time since January 16, 2007. I am no joke.

It is too easy for me do whatever I feel like doing in game. I have no problems owning with any vehicle or character.

The bad part about all this is that I actually liked this guy "ExPedro" and he is a pretty good sniper. But obviously, if I kill him, then I must be using aimbot!

I just found this moments ago when I tried to enter his server:

These idiots should take their heads out of their asses. This is what happens when you think and claim you are "soo good" and then when some unknown guy kills you and humiliates you, you feel so bad that you abuse the power you have to impose an unfair punishment.

Anyway...this is not a rant...I know what kind of Renegade player I am.

NOTE: I looked for their forum but could not find it. Care to point me to it please? Also, this is not a "unban me" b*tching post! This is just to say how cocky some players are.
