Hello,

I bought C&C Saga a couple days ago. It has TFD and C&C 3 together in one bundle.

Anyway, I tried to install it in my new desktop comp (which also has C&C Renegade installed).

And it says there is a conflict. It allows me to install but warns that there will be "conflicts" if I do so. So I did not install.

I don't want to use the Renegade that came with the bundle as my account "Starbuzz" is registered to the other Renegade CD I bought a year ago.

I only want to play Generals-Zero Hour as I have never played it before. What sort of conflict is that warning me about? What if I go ahead and install it anyway? Is this question be asked before?

Thank you.
