So there is a big party tonight (~150 people, alcohol, dancing) and I am the guy in charge of making a playlist.

I don't listen to the types of music that would normally be played at such a party (I listen mostly to classic and alternative rock), so I am looking for some suggestions.

Any of you got some hit songs that you think would please a big crowd? You know, stuff like Usher and Soulja Boy. Name me off some good ones you can think of (if you want). Thanks guys.
