I didn't get the free map either.

There's going to be some serious butt-kicking...

They aren't sending you a beta key.

The beta key is for only those who PRE-ORDERED the game in stores. Since you downloaded it on launch day, you aren't entitled to one.

Nono, I pre-ordered it last week and they said in the confirmation e-mail "Your redemption code for the Decrepit Arena map will be sent to you when the game is released. Beta Key will also be supplied to register for Command & Conquer Red Alert 3 Beta Client."

Instead they just sent me an e-mail to say "download now!!! lolol".

I sent them an e-mail back, and it says they'll reply within 24 hours, so I'll get back to you next month.
