Article:

DO NOT post false links to look like real news reports [moderator]

LOL Razor...good one! I wonder which Mod got owned with that false link LMFAO.

Couldn't say. It wasn't me who clicked, and I was the one who edited it. It was a very poor "April Fool's" joke. I don't even know what it linked to (never seen that site address before), but because it looked like a legitimate news link, it would have been treated as one.
