Surth wrote on Fri, 04 April 2008 19:56 Living in Germany is definitely no excuse for not being able to speak english properly. It's not about living in Germany, it's about being german. There is a slightly difference as you can imagine.

The English you learn at school here is just a basic amount to start with. With this level of knowledge, you can hardly survive the everyday life in english-speaking countries.
