CaptkurtAircraftkillerPeople don't play Renegade to see a box of "Tiberios," I'm afraid. Any reference to that as a valid reason to why this game should be played is null and void.

We all know he means to say "I don't play Renegade to see a box of "Tiberios," I'm afraid. Any reference to that as a valid reason to why this game should be played, TO ME is null and void." Beacuse we all know that Ack would not try and speak, for all of us.

If you play for Tiberios, you're a fucking idiot. They're only in one level that isn't even played anymore.

Think before you write, CaptKurt.
