I know we have some gifted video makers in here, but does this community have what it takes to make a full episode of C&C TV for Renegade?

We'd at least need a:

- script
- preferably 2 show hosts presenting all the material, native English speaking people would be good
- Renegade related videos
- some humor

I think with the help of some dedicated people, this could become a community project like we've never seen one before.

Use this topic to brain storm and propose your help . If I find enough enthusiastic people for this, I will try to coordinate this effort.

If someone doesn't know what C&C TV is, check www.commandandconquertv.com and chekc Battle Cast Prime Time (BCPT).
