I forgot where, I see if I can find it again for ya. I don't buy PCs I make them I like to build them my self because I don't have to settle for any thing I put what I want in there, also I know whats in there and so if I ever run into a prob, I'll have an idea whats wrong. I'm thinking of making another PC in this case <http://www.eugeneargent.com/case1.htm>
