Lol, Spoony just won't give up on his 'bitching and crying' about the DQ. I let it go right away, and me and simpee were just making sarcastic remarks over it, which YOU take as a personal insult or something, seeing as you're so angry about it and bitching and crying about our sarcastic jokes which you obviously can't handle.

Then you lie to everyone saying that you weren't angry but you just suspended anyway! (lemme just debate like you, call you angry and stuff) Then you just make up a cover story for your anger, a.k.a. call US angry, liars, and more.

You are so gonna try to defend yourself against this fact, but it's so useless, people just know you are like that. Just by looking at 3-4 random debates of you, people can tell. You call almost everyone a liar and angry over fact 'x', then you associate that with an automatic proof for your statement 'y'.

Have fun sperming up this post as well, achieving nothing but a feeling in YOURSELF thinking you're winning this.

Quote:All I've done in response is point out the parts in which he's lied to everybody to try to get them on his side, point out how wrong big chunks of his "arguments" are, and let people know the truth of these matters. All we've had in return is TD changing the subject every time he's wrong or he's caught lying about something, and post after post after post desperately trying to prove how angry he isn't. As if anyone cares how angry he is, least of all me.

I didn't do anything to get anybody on my side, I never had an intention like that. People just know which side's bitching, easy to notice: 'IT WAS ALL JUST A JUSTIFIED ADMIN DECISION AND HES ANGRY, IM NOT, HES LYING, IVE PROVEN IT MANY TIMES'

You can just mention your 'admin actions' to hide your anger behind it, which you are doing here. Too bad you can't hide your true anger lol. After all these people here, at jelly, at smak, trying to prove you something, you just call them angry and liars, and that I'm trying to get people on my side by lying. That's just something you made up. Get over it.
