Thanks

EDIT: Havoc posing

Extra Notes:

In the PKG file havoc actually appears after 20 seconds (customs and disabled spawners). I planned to do that so I could have some shots with him in and out of the picture. In the end his "head place" was chopped out of the only image for this comic without his head in the first place. The soldier had no innate behaviour (so he wouldn't turn, move or engage combat). He would gesture every now and then (as you can see in the images) so I was able to take advantage of those moments.

Finally I used the hud0 console command for taking the screenshots.
