Shit happens. That's about all there is to global warming. Get an AC when that shit happens. Or, don't, so the national IQ average will rise some more.

Back on topic...

1. People who fake being an idiot for attention.
 2. People who ARE an idiot for attention.
 3. Hypocrites.
 4. People who simply follow what they're told because they're told to do it, instead of actually questioning why they're doing it, and following their own answers.
 5. Egotistical people. ESPECIALLY when they have nothing to be proud of.
