Can you please place known cheaters names and IP's in the new scripts that will stop them using the new patch and thus telling them to fuck off?

lol, it's too bad everyone direct connects these days and many have dynamic ip's

Well, we would've probably removed it, if Yrr didn't insisted on leaving it in....

That's not up to us, that's up to strike-team. They have a very strict policy about cheaters on RA2 and such but don't at all for renegade .

Westwood, EA and Strike-team have all abandoned us Renegade players from my point of view. At least Serialbanning is possible and will be implemented on the server by default.
