Eh, vigilante justice is a... uneasy discussion.

Its the real love-hate relationship, and a gamble. Under the right situations, it can be useful and right. However it is a very fine line between righteous vigilante justice and misplaced justice.

Did thieves deserve the death penalty? I don't think so. I do not believe Mr. Horn was right or just in his execution of the two thieves. This would be a great example of "vigilante justice" gone wrong.
