then yonnie fucked it up...

what i think happen is yonnie was a good player but thens started cheating and needed to cheat to keep up his skill everyone knew but now i know tons of people inc mods on his own serv that say they seen him use hacks and refill in filed....and i had friends tell em later they came in with hacks and told me they was watching him cheat by using hacks to watch him like ran somewhere when no one was around and he followed then went back and he went back then spectate killed them....inc biatch caught him like 25 times and he says its lag.....and thats not even inc the ss and fraps they had of him when the first yonnei cheating thing started and now the servers dead and he says it cuase they cant handle it when eVERYONE tells me is cause of him.....now he fired lot of good mods for bitch ones and fucked the server u now the admins run it all and they slow or never around now we got bad fucking rules sucky mods cause they took everything out cause they think its a glitch when really its ssgm which fixes the glicthes now you have a great server thats more dead them anything else and irc is empty with like 6 people everyday 3 autojoin 2 are bots and ones 1 anyone else be happy if they join...most mods and even normal players are long gone and xphaze went to hell....also inc he wont run rg he wont run new scripts after he said he will then found out rgj wont work on them and never ever will get them or test and iv seen him hack myself hes a cool person in real life just some lay back redneck but in the gaming world hes trash which is ok for me cuase idk about hackings because real life they could be the nicest person in the world
